Hygiene matters.

Sign up for a free data health check at the Esri Water Conference to clean your data.

How does this work?

1. Sign up below.
2. Bring a data sample to Portland, Oregon.
3. Let an Esri expert run diagnostics.
4. Learn about any errors or data concerns.
5. Share your findings with colleagues through your Esri-generated Excel report.

Use the button below to book your data health check.
