Subject: Give a Lightning Talk at DevSummit

DEVELOP YOURSELF

2015 Esri International
Developer Summit
Palm Springs, California
March 10-13

Take Your Code on the Road

Make a difference when you give a five-minute lightning Lightning talk Talk at the Esri International Developer Summit (DevSummit) in sunny California.

Lightning talkers show off current and recent projects. So you can inspire others tackling similar challenges, or you can pick the brains of your peers for solutions to a particular problem.

Stick around after your talk to pick some of the best minds in software development.

Just watch the clock! We reboot the stage promptly at 5 five minutes.
