Subject: July Water Resources (Hydro) Meeting Topics

What Are You Doing on Sunday, July 19?

Spend your Sunday before the Esri User Conference at the July Water Resources (Hydro) Meeting. Meet like-minded GIS professionals, share best practices, and make lasting connections. Here are just some of topics that will be discussed:

- US Open Water Data Initiative
- National Flood Interoperability
- Using GIS to Manage Severe Drought
- Leveraging Real-Time Data for Intelligent Water Utility Management

Registration is free but required. We'll see you at the San Diego Convention Center!

P.S. Extend your experience by attending all the other water activities during Esri UC.
