

Sarah Alban

From: Esri Electric and Gas GIS Conference <newsletter@esri.com>
Sent: Tuesday, October 14, 2014 4:00 PM
To: Sarah Alban
Subject: To Our First-Time Attendees

Your map tells a story. But there is more to tell . . .

Esri Electric and Gas GIS Conference—October 26-29—Memphis

A Message from the Electric and Gas User Group President

Please let me be the first to welcome you to the Esri Electric and Gas GIS Conference! You are in for an exciting and educational four days.

Here is a list of several not-to-miss conference highlights:

- Sunday: Welcome Reception
Join us in the Sheraton's Magnolia Ballroom in the evening to pick up your conference materials, connect with other attendees, and meet your Electric and Gas User Group (EGUG) officers.
- Monday: Speed Networking
Make connections that will energize your professional networks at 1:00 p.m. in Ballroom A.
- Monday: Birds of a Feather Talks
Find out what your peers are doing, how they're doing it, and offer feedback at 2:00 p.m. in various rooms.

- Tuesday: Officer Elections

You don't want to miss the EGUG Community Meeting in Ballroom A, where you will vote for your 2015 representative.

- Wednesday: Tour Memphis Light, Gas and Water

Learn how this utility runs during a two-hour tour of this year's conference host. Registration is required.

Thank you for committing to attend the Esri Electric and Gas GIS Conference! If you have not yet officially joined EGUG, request your free membership and join us on GeoNet. GeoNet is your preconference networking resource to let everyone know you're attending.

We are happy to welcome you to this active conference of dedicated GIS users in the electric and gas industries. I will see you in Memphis!

Sincerely,

Bill Wickersheim
Burbank Water and Power
2014 EGUG President

Unsubscribe from Esri event, product, and training notifications
Esri.com | Privacy | Contact Us
Copyright © 2014 Esri. All rights reserved.
Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.