Fight Drought with GIS

Dear Sarah Alban:

You're one hour away from mitigating drought impact when you sign up for Esri's free webinar Responding to Drought: A Green Story.

Join Esri and the City of Fontana, California, to learn best practices for streamlining urban landscaping while minimizing water waste. Maintain healthy parks, parkways, and medians with cutting-edge uses of GIS. Plus, explore proven irrigation and turf management tactics.

Reserve your seat today. Registration is required.
